

Welcome To Esidai Africa.
Esidai is a Maasai name means beautiful, like you.

Esidai Africa, born from adversity, embodies resilience. Founder John Polycarp Shayo's journey from a failed maize business to a flourishing safari venture is a testament to determination.

Collaborating with an Indian traveler, they prioritize authentic experiences over profit, aiming to redefine the safari industry with transparency and positive community impact.

